2. FEATURES - Characters and World Design - BEARDLESS MOTORCYCLE PATROL A series of drastic changes have taken place in the Lands Between, and the remainder of the world is in a precarious state. An evil force known as "The Youngest" has managed to completely destroy the Elden Kingdom and unleash a calamity unto the people. A portion of the population has fallen victim to the threat, and the remaining people fled to the skies to conceal themselves, leaving the world in a state of chaos. Now, the peaceful Tarnished Valley has fallen into disarray. One beleaguered mother leaves her child with a family friend and wanders into the mountains to search for allies, while the inhabitants of the neighboring village desperately look for food in the wilderness. A group of youngsters who have been abandoned in a cave sneak out of the dark into the light, but they're not alone. On the contrary, they are being guided by a mysterious and beautiful girl who calls herself "Magrave." The advent of Elden Lords is just around the corner, and a familiar tale about a legendary hero sets the stage for the new world. This is a tale that unfolds in fragments and is connected to other characters in the Lands Between, whose thoughts, emotions, and memories play an important role in the story. Please note that the above story is a product of the Imagination of the author, and may not represent the actual world or events. ■ Characters: Brock (Character Voice By: Daisuke Sakaguchi) - An ordinary guy who lives in a small village. He goes on a journey with a group of adventurers to get away from the hometown he has always lived in, but rather than a journey, it has turned into a long journey full of adventure. Astrid (Character Voice By: Ryoko Shiraishi) - An intelligent girl with an unshakable appearance. She likes the atmosphere of the town where she lives and the antics of the people living there. She is somewhat introverted, but she is a cheerful young girl who wakes up daily with the determination to care for others. Kaede (Character Voice By: Yuki Kaji) - An old woman who has been living in the village her whole life. Although she is old and slow of body, she carries the power of a princess. She must build a village in the middle of nowhere, and she is currently in the process of trying to overcome her loneliness.

How do I set ActiveXObject Listbox in a c# expression? I don't have access to a Winforms designer so I'm guessing I'll have to set it in code. A: If I remember correctly, listboxes and textboxes can be created in code. Textbox txb = new TextBox(); txb.Location = new System.Drawing.Point(50,50); Listbox lb = new Listbox(); lb.Location = new System.Drawing.Point(100,100); lb.Dock = DockStyle.Top; lb.Size = new System.Drawing.Size(210,175); Check out this question for more information on ActiveX objects: How do I access/
